LIONS

- Population: Fewer than 500
- Status: Endangered
- Diet: Carnivore
- Location: Eastern gorilla – 5,000 / western gorilla – 100,000
- Status: Critically endangered
- Diet: Omnivore

Did you know?
- In the wild, gorillas can be expected to live for up to 35 years
- Gorillas have hands and feet like humans including opposable thumbs and big toes
- They sleep at night in nests
- Gorillas are the largest species of primates
- Male gorillas grow to around 1.8m tall and weigh around 270kg
- They eat leaves, fruits, herbs, bark, roots, bamboo and seeds.

African Elephants

- Population: 20,000
- Status: Vulnerable
- Diet: Carnivore
- Location: Sub-Saharan Africa and Gir forest in west India

Did you know?
- Male African elephants can reach three metres tall and weigh up to 6,000kg
- They have large ears shaped like the continent of Africa
- African elephants spend between 12 to 18 hours eating grass, plants and fruit every single day
- Each elephant creates about one tonne of poo per week
- They throw mud and sand over themselves to protect their skin from the hot, burning sun.

Ethiopian Wolves

- Population: 45,000
- Status: Vulnerable
- Diet: Carnivore
- Location: Sub-Saharan Africa

Did you know?
- Elephants are the world’s largest land animals
- Male African elephants can reach three metres tall and weigh up to 6,000kg
- They have large ears shaped like the continent of Africa
- African elephants spend between 12 to 18 hours eating grass, plants and fruit every single day
- Each elephant creates about one tonne of poo per week
- They throw mud and sand over themselves to protect their skin from the hot, burning sun.