Living with tigers

Background:

Tigers are the largest cat on earth. Their distinctive markings blend in to the colours and shadows of their habitat. Tigers are generally solitary, living and hunting alone. As top predators, they are a keystone species and are critical to the ecosystems in which they live.

Project:

Create your own tiger campaign poster:

- The title of your poster should be:
Living in harmony with tigers
- Do your research:
 - What is your key message?
 - You can use the information below
 - Or use a Kiddle search to find out more.
- Consider your audience:
 - Will this be for your family, a teacher, will you put this on your window for neighbours to see?
- Find examples of other posters online
 - Take inspiration from lots of different posters – writing down what your favourite parts are.
- Get writing!

Background:

To get you started:

- Population: 3,500 – 4,000 and decreasing.
- Diet: Carnivorous – quite diverse, including wild pigs, deer, water buffalo, gaur, banteng, primates, porcupines and other rodents, reptiles, birds, amphibians, fish, and insects.
- Habitat: Found mainly in the forests of Asia, from the freezing boreal forests to hot and humid tropical rainforests.
- Found in: Resident in 11 countries, with the largest numbers found in India and Russia.
- Species: How many different species of tiger do you think there are?

HOW MANY WILD TIGERS?

Useful terms:

- Human-wildlife conflict – when people and wild animals live close together conflict can arise when the two compete for space and resources (negative interaction).
- Co-existence – when humans and wildlife live together in harmony. This may be possible where there is no human-wildlife conflict or where we can find solutions that benefit both people and wildlife.

Precious primates

Background:

Only around 6% of Earth's land surface is rainforest – but it holds about half of all animal and plant species.

The Upper and Lower Guinea rainforests of West Africa have the greatest diversity of primates in the world (60 species and sub-species, 46 of which are endemic – meaning that they are found nowhere else on Earth).

- Use the information below and your own research (perhaps via Kiddle) to learn more about the subject
- Key questions:
 - What do rainforests provide?
 - Where are they found?
 - Why are they cut down?
 - How does this impact you personally?
- Think about your audience?
 - Will this be for your family, a teacher, or via video call with your friends?
- Start by writing notes or key words
- Use these to create your speech You can write multiple versions until you are happy
- You are ready to go, project your voice and don't rush. Have fun!
